Context of Martyrdom

August 4, 2024. This day was known throughout the country as 'July 35, 2024'. It was a Sunday. The time was 3:30 PM. A nationwide non-cooperation movement and protests were underway, called by anti-discrimination students. The movement had reached its peak. Clashes with the police in various places had resulted in the deaths of approximately 21 people by that point. The government imposed an indefinite curfew from 6 PM. The atmosphere was tense.

Martyr Abdur Gani left his office and joined the movement in Banglamotor of the capital Dhaka. He was at the very front of the procession. At this time, the police fired indiscriminately at innocent people. Two police bullets hit him – one in the chest and the other in the neck. He immediately fell to the ground and breathed his last.
