Martyrdom Details and History

Shaheed Md. Abu Bakar Siddique was born in Dakshin Chanpur village, Yakubpur Union, Daganbhuiyan Thana, Feni district on January 1, 1988. His father's name was Abul Hashem, and his mother's name was Deloara Begum. Currently, both of the martyr's parents are deceased. Shaheed Abu Bakar Siddique's family consists of his wife and two young children. He was employed at Elephant Chemical Industries.

Shaheed's Economic Condition

Shaheed Md. Abu Bakar Siddique was the sole breadwinner of his family. He was working at Elephant Chemical Industries. His family includes his wife and two young children. His only son, 8-year-old Farhan, is currently studying in the second grade. His only daughter, Ayatullah Siddique, is just 10 months old. Currently, his wife and her two children are living a very helpless life. The memories of her husband are constantly flashing before her eyes. His son Farhan cannot forget his father. And his daughter Ayatullah doesn't even understand what a father's love is. With the only source of income for the family closed, the future of the children is now bleak, their beautiful future has become uncertain. They are deprived of their father's love for the rest of their lives.

Circumstances of Martyrdom

July 21, 2024. It was a Sunday. Abu Bakar left his office as usual. Seeing the anti-discrimination student movement's procession at the Feni rail gate area, he joined it. At this time, the police launched an unprovoked attack.

It is worth mentioning that the country's situation was not good at all at that time. Under the leadership of the anti-discrimination students, a massive movement was going on all over the country. Internet access had been shut down across the country by order of the government. There was no way to know what was happening where and how. Moreover, under the fascist government's orders, the police force was killing people like birds. Martyr Abu Bakar was one such "bird." Before he could understand anything, a police bullet suddenly hit him. Later, when the situation normalized, he was taken to the hospital. After struggling with death for five days in the hospital, he finally passed away. His body was later taken to his village home. Martyr Abu Bakar Siddique is resting in eternal peace at his home in Daganbhuiyan of Feni district.

May Allah grant him Jannatul Firdaus. Ameen.â€
