Martyrdom Details and History

Martyr Biplob Hasan's father is a bicycle mechanic. He is physically ill and his monthly income is only 5,000 Taka. With this limited amount, he was struggling to meet the expenses of the entire family, including the education of his children. Biplob understood everything. Therefore, to support his family financially, he worked in an oil mill alongside his studies. His family consisted of five members, including his two younger sisters.

Martyr Biplob Hasan was the beloved child of his parents. He was the eldest among three siblings. Biplob's grandmother loved him dearly. Biplob used to help his sick father to reduce his burden. That path was also blocked after his martyrdom.

Description of the Incident

The time was July 20, 2024, at 12 noon. A student-people's protest rally was organized in Churali village of Gouripur police station to demand the realization of the anti-discrimination student movement. The Koltapara market became turbulent. The day will remain memorable for the entire villagers. People joined the rally in groups. Biplob also did not miss out. He did not hesitate to risk his own life for the country and its people. During the protest, Martyr Biplob Hasan was with 1500 students. At this time, the autocratic killer Hasina's assassin police fired to disperse the rally. The protesters scattered in different directions. In such a situation, the police arrested Biplob Hasan. The fearless teenager was brutally beaten there by the barbaric Awami police. Finally, his head was pressed against the ground with a boot shoe. Three shots were fired calmly. First in the chest and abdomen and then in the head. Biplob Hasan was martyred on the spot. After the incident, the family started searching for him like crazy. After finding the lifeless body of the martyr, his grandmother Rokea Begum broke down in tears. She wants justice for the murderer of her grandson.

Martyr Biplob Hossain was buried in Churali, Gouripur. On that day, along with Biplob, a total of 3 youths were martyred by police bullets in the same place. The other two were, Nure Alam Siddiqui alias Rakib (20), and Zobayer Ahmed (21). A cloud of grief descended on the village. They want justice for these killings.

Proposals:

1. The martyr's family needs housing.
2. It would be good if a business establishment could be set up for the martyr's father.
3. Assistance can be provided to cover the educational expenses of the martyr's sisters.
